

How to save money for travel

If you're ready to start saving for travel explore your options and see what type of vacation suits you best. Is it a week at an all-inclusive resort, a month-long self-guided trip through Europe, or a cruise through the Mediterranean? Knowing the type of vacation you want ahead of time can help you set a budget and have an idea of how much to save for your trip.

Ideas to help you save for your trip

- Open an account dedicated to saving for your vacation so you can reserve it exclusively for your trip.
- Consider automatically transferring money to this account with the Pre-authorized Transfer service.
- If you're tempted by a shopping deal, remember your goal and consider putting that money towards your vacation instead.
- The TD MySpend app can help you track your spending from your TD deposit accounts and TD credit card accounts.

Tools to help you reach your vacation savings goals

Simply Save Program

You can save a little bit every time you make debit purchases or ATM withdrawals using your TD Access Card.

Learn more

TD Foreign Exchange Calculator

How much money will you need when you travel? Use the TD Foreign Exchange Calculator to see what your Canadian dollars may be worth.

Calculate now

Related articles

How to budget for your trip

Have your sights set on a vacation? From setting goals to staying on track, here are five steps to help you make a travel budget.

Learn more

Ways to help you save money

Discover how building a plan to save money can help you feel more financially confident about reaching your vacation savings goals.

Learn more

Have a question? Find answers here

What's your question?

Ask Us

Popular questions >

Need to talk to us directly? Contact us >

Follow TD

Privacy & Security

Legal

Accessibility

CDIC Member

About Us

Careers

Manage online experience

Site Index